ARTICLE 1: NAME OF THE SOCIETY

The Society shall be called as "CSE Society" (hereinafter referred to as "Society"). The Society shall represent the students of the Department of Computer Science & Engineering, Institute of Engineering and Rural Technology, Engineering Degree Division, Chaitham Lines, Prayagraj.

ARTICLE 2: OFFICE OF THE SOCIETY

The office of the Society shall be situated within the premises of the Department of Computer Science & Engineering, Institute of Engineering and Rural Technology, Engineering Degree Division, Chaitham Lines, Prayagraj.

ARTICLE 3: AIMS AND OBJECTIVES OF THE SOCIETY

The aims and objectives of the Society shall be:

1. To promote technical cooperation, professional development, and a spirit of unity among the students of the Department.
2. To organize academic, technical, cultural, and extracurricular activities including seminars, workshops, quizzes and for the holistic development of students.
3. To publish, and provide access to academic, technical, and professional magazines, journals, newsletters, and other relevant publications for the benefit of members of the Society.
4. To facilitate peer learning, mentorship, and knowledge exchange among students.
5. To undertake such other activities as may be consistent with the objectives of the Society, subject to approval of the Patron.

ARTICLE 4: MEMBERSHIP

There shall be two categories of membership:

(a) Regular Members

All bona fide students of the Department of Computer Science & Engineering whose names appear on the official Institute Roll List shall be Regular Members of the Society.

(b) Honorary Members

All faculty members of the Department of Computer Science & Engineering shall be Honorary Members of the Society.

ARTICLE 5: PATRON

The Head of the Department of Computer Science & Engineering shall serve as the Ex-officio Patron of the Society. Their guidance shall be sought on all important matters, and they shall have the power to

1. Review and approve policies and the annual budget of the Society.
2. Suspend or dissolve the Executive Committee in cases of misconduct or failure to function as per institute's rules.

ARTICLE 6: CHAIRPERSON

The Head of the Department (HOD) of Computer Science & Engineering shall have the authority to nominate a faculty member to serve as the Chairperson of the Society. The Chairperson shall have the power to

1. To review and advise on all decisions of the Executive Committee.
2. Ensure that all decisions and activities align with institutional policies.

ARTICLE 7: ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

The Society shall consist of the following bodies:

1. Executive Committee (EC)

The Executive Committee shall comprise:

- President -1 Post
- Vice President-1 Post
- General Secretary-1 Post
- Cultural Secretary- 1 Post
- Technical Secretary-1 Post
- Treasurer-2 Post
- Year Representatives- 8 (2 from each academic year) Post

Treasurer

- The Treasury shall consist of one Faculty Treasurer and one Student treasurer.
- The Faculty Treasurer shall be appointed by the Patron.
- The Student Treasurer shall be elected from the Final or Pre-Final Year members.

Eligibility Criteria

Candidates contesting for the above positions shall satisfy the following conditions:

- President — Final Year student
- Vice President — Pre-Final Year student
- General Secretary — Final or Pre-Final Year student
- Treasurer — Final or Pre-Final Year student
- Technical Secretary — Students from Second or Third Year
- Cultural Secretary — Students from Second or Third Year
- Year Representatives—Two representatives from each academic year (First, Second, Third, and Final Year)

2. General Body

The General Body shall consist of all members of the Society, including the Patron and the Chairperson.

ARTICLE 8: IMPEACHMENT

Any elected member may be removed from their positions by the Executive Committee in accordance with procedures specified in the bylaws.

ARTICLE 9: AMENDMENTS

This Constitution and the bylaws may be amended as and when required, subject to approval of the General Body and the Patron. The Constitution shall be reviewed at least once in each academic year.

ARTICLE 10: DISPUTES

The General Secretary shall represent the Society in all official disputes, subject to guidance from the Chairperson and Patron.

ARTICLE 11: DISSOLUTION

The Patron shall possess the absolute power to dissolve the Society or terminate the membership of any member in accordance with institute's rules.

The dissolution of the Executive Committee, in whole or in part, shall take place at any time (on special situation leading to act such as violation of aims and objectives, financial irregularities, gross misconduct) by the Patron, otherwise a notice of one week shall be given seeking explanation to show the cause/explanation for not to dissolve the committee/member.

ARTICLE 12: RECALL

The entire Executive Committee may be recalled by the General Body through a resolution passed by a two-thirds majority, in accordance with the prescribed procedure.

ARTICLE 13: RESIGNATION OF OFFICE BEARERS

Any elected member may resign before completion of tenure by submitting a written resignation to the Chairperson who shall be bound to inform the general body.

Upon receipt of resignation, the Chairperson may:

1. Accept the resignation, or
2. Request reconsideration within a specified period not exceeding seven days.

ARTICLE 14: ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Advisory Committee shall be a nine-member body that shall adjudicate on matters of interpretation of provisions incorporated herein, should a reference be made to it, either by members whose number is not less than one-tenth of the total members of the association or by the EC. The Advisory Committee is placed to serve as an expert group which shall come into action only in situations where an interpretation crisis has arisen, or for a situation for which the constitution (including its by-laws) has made no provision.

Its Composition

- The Director of the institute (Ex-officio) shall be the first member and shall chair all the meetings of the Advisory Committee.
- Three senior faculty members nominated by the Director of the institute.
- Deputy Registrar
- Head of the Department of Computer Science & Engineering.
- One Special Invitee Member, who may be an eminent academician, industry expert, alumnus, or any other distinguished individual, nominated by the Chairperson.

The decision of the advisory committee may be the carried out by simple majority and in matter of administration and protocol the first member shall be considered first among equals.

Whenever a reference is made to the Advisory Committee in its capacity as an adjudicator, and if its decision on the reference is not unanimous, the individual opinions and decisions of each member shall be presented in writing to the General Body.

The provisions for in-between resignation shall apply in same way, except that the resignation shall be tendered to the next upper in hierarchy within the Advisory Committee.

The Advisory Committee shall fill up such vacant posts within a month from the date of vacancy being created.

The tenure of individual members shall be concurrent with the tenure of the Advisory Committee.

BYLAWS

1.MEMBERSHIP

The annual membership fee shall be Rs.300/-for all regular members. Honorary members shall be exempted from membership fee.

2.DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Executive Committee shall be responsible for the administration and functioning of the Society.

President

- Preside over all meetings of the General Body and Executive Committee
- Shall ensure that the objectives of the society are pursued effectively.
- Shall represent the society before the institutional authorities and external bodies.
- Shall approve major plans, policies, and official communications
- Supervise the activities of all office bearers and committee

Vice President

- Assist the President
- Perform duties of the President in their absence

- Monitor implementation of decisions
- Shall undertake responsibilities delegated by the president

General Secretary

- Prepare the agenda and maintain minutes for all Executive and General body meetings
- Maintain all the records and documents
- Coordinate activities and communications
- Supervise organization of events, programs, and activities of the Society

Cultural Secretary

- Plan and conduct cultural events and programs
- Promote artistic and extracurricular activities
- Perform any other duties assigned by the president or general secretary

Technical Secretary

- Organize technical events such as workshops, seminars, and competitions
- Manage technical resources, equipment for events and programs
- Perform any other duties assigned by the president or general secretar

Treasurer

(One Faculty Member and One Student Member)

- Manage funds and expenditures
- Maintain financial records and accounts
- Prepare budgets and financial statements
- Faculty Treasurer shall supervise all financial matters

Year Representatives

(Two per academic year)

- Represent concerns of their respective batches
- Communicate official information to students
- Encourage participation in Society activities
- Assist in event organization

3.POWERS AND FUNCTIONS OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE & GENERAL BODY

1.Executive Committee

The Executive Committee shall:

1. All the executive authority of the society shall vest in EC, which shall be responsible to the General Body
2. Prepare the annual budget and present it before the General Body for ratification and to operate the funds of the association
3. Frame and amend or alter bylaws necessary for the proper functioning of the society in conformity with the constitution subject to ratification by the General Body
4. Decide the membership fee for all regular members if need arises
5. Organize the functions and event of the society

2.General Body

The General Body shall:

1. Comprise all the members and shall be supreme in all matters related to the society
2. Elect office bearers of Executive Committee
3. Approve policies and amendments
4. Act on any matter suggested by the Executive Committee

4. TENURE

The tenure shall be one academic year for each of the Executive Committee members.

5.IMPEACHMENT PROCEDURE

If any elected member abstains from two consecutive meetings/programs of the society without informing the Chairperson he/she may be impeached by the EC by a majority after giving him/her an opportunity to explain the reasons of absence within a prescribed time limit

The EC can impeach any of it's member for any misconduct after giving him/her an opportunity to give an explanation within the prescribed time limit.

Note: Any matter not covered by this Constitution shall be decided by the General Body. If necessary a special meeting of the General Body may be called for this person.